

The Home Health Aide Competency Exam is utilized as one element of the aide competency process. In addition to supporting our competency program, the exam is utilized to identify areas of needed education and support from the RN supervisor.